Fire Calls At Gullett & Harris

The quick response by the Sierra Madre Volunteer Fire Department at 4:07 a.m. Sunday morning, may have saved the whole block of Kersting Court.

Upon arrival they found the awning of the Gullett and Harris Women's Wear in complete flame. The entire awning was lost, and the front of the store charred, as were the trees in front. Some smoke was evidenced within the store but was quickly removed before and damage was evident.

An additional fire call was answered on Monday afternoon at 2:04 and was reported as a truck fire, but the vehicle had left the scene before the arrival of the fire department.

At the hour of eight o'clock the retiring council, in session to canvass the votes of the general election of April 12, received from City Clerk Marie Warfel the Certificate of Results. Hearing the results, the Council then passed Resolution No. 2225, reciting the facts of the election and declaring the Candidates Edmond G. Wagner, Jan Maddox and Frank Parks, elected to the City Council and the defeat of the Civic Center.

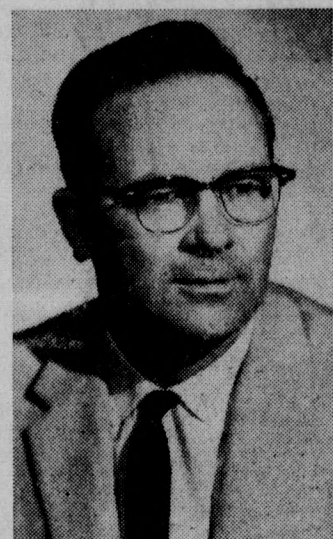

The City Clerk then acknowledged that she had received the statements of expenditures of the candidates and proceeded to administer the Oath of Office to the newly elected candidates.

Public Schools Week Set April 22-29 With Activity

For the 47 years that the public schools of the State of California have observed Public School Week, the Order of the Masonic Lodge has given its support to this observance. This year Sierra Madre Lodge No. 408, F & A.M., will have its kick-off dinner, re-enlisting the support of members for this week on the preceding Friday, April 22, at 7 p.m. in the Masonic Hall at 33 E. Sierra Madre Blvd. John Bowman, P.M., is chairman of the committee for school week, and other committee members are Rudolph Hartman, P.M., Ray Pease, Paul Watson and Marcus Woodward.

This committee and additional selected members will be the hosts for the schools' Open House Night, which will be held on Monday, April 25, for both Sierra Madre and Sierra Mesa elementary schools, and on Thursday, April 28, for the Continuation School at 3061 E. Pothill, Pasadena. These members will be stationed about to help direct parents or to answer their questions.

At the kick-off dinner, at which it is expected some hundred members will attend, Professor Ralph W. Hornbeck, Administrative Director of the Pasadena Schools, will address the group. A program of entertainment will be presented by pupils of both elementary schools. Students of the Continuation School will furnish table decorations for the dinner, and in addition have made posters which Lodge members have placed in store windows, preferring to use the work of the students rather than the printed posters furnished from Sacramento by the State. The posters are a replica of the American flag, bearing the theme of this year's Public School Week: "Keep America Strong—Support Our Public Schools."

"Public School Week is one of the most important Masonic activities, even though so brief in time," said Earl Knowles, W.M. of the Sierra Madre Lodge, in giving information on the dinner to the News, "because it is in support of the basic institution of our government. Education is the foundation of freedom. That we must first build a strong foundation before trying to erect a temple has always been a teaching of the Masonic Lodge."

It is rumored that Earl Knowles, who is 80 years old, is the oldest Grand

Orchid Hobbyists Announce Speaker

The San Gabriel Valley Orchid Hobbyists will have for their speaker, Dr. Jack Foville, who will talk on "Mayan Culture and Orchids From That Area." The meeting will be on April 21 at the Los Angeles State and County Arboretum, Arcadia.

The Culture Class will have Mr. Enrique Castro, manager of Devy's Orchids of Tarzana. His topic will be on "Culture Requirements of Cypripediums and Other Cool Growing Plants."

Culture class convenes at 7 p.m., and the regular meeting is at 8 p.m.

Last year the big dinner dance which was held at the end of the Little League Baseball season for the fun of all the assorted volunteer adults who make the season was titled "A Diamond Is a Boy's Best Friend." This year the dance will be called "Vacations A Go-Go." This annual Base Ball is only one of the rewards, one of the fun doings, one of the fund-raising activities associated with Little League.

Probably most cherished of the rewards is the permanent trophy presented to the manager of the pennant-winning team by Robert Evans, publisher and editor of the Sierra Madre News. The winning manager keeps this handsome trophy for a year; if his team is a winner two years in a row, he can keep it permanently forever. Lee Skarin achieved this when he managed the Red Sox in 1964 and 1965. The manager of the pennant winner team the all star team, which is composed of players selected by each manager from his team. The all-stars go into the six-week tournament play-offs, meeting other all stars to compete for district championship. District champions go on to further competition and at Williamsport, Pa. headquarters for Little Leagues all over the world, there is a National Little League World Series — truly a "world" series, for players do come from all over the world.

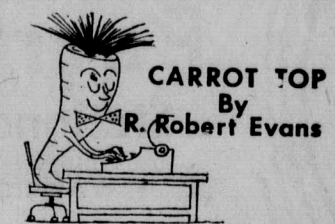

The pennant team has its own party celebration in its own way, a picnic, barbecue or what have you. Each team, winner or not, winds up the season with some kind of party. And last year it became the custom on Friday nights for some teams, with their fathers and mothers, to go to a local pizza parlor where there was music from a piano and a guitar, and all would sing along with the musicians. So, whether it is enjoying well-earned recreation, together as a family unit, or fathers struggling with kids and rules, or mothers working to bring in the funds, Little League is the greatest for getting parents acquainted with each other.

Harvesting funds is done in several ways. Those placards you see in store windows made in the shape of a baseball mitt are to promote the sale of "Booster" tickets, which cost 50 cents, and add many small sums to the total. First funds were raised in the early days by sandwiches which mothers brought to the field and sold from a truck. Now the "Diamond Diner" concession sells traditional franks and cokes and such for Little League profit, and in the process adds to a proper baseball game atmosphere.

Toughest and most important part of the financing is getting sponsors for uniforms and equipment. There is no Community Chest subsidy for Little League. Sponsors, who may be private individuals or business firms, contribute $75 to be sponsor of a Minor League, $150 for a Major League. It is possible to be a co-sponsor, halving the fee, and there are plans to

CARROT TOP By R. Robert Evans

I have often wondered what a good beauty operator does on her evenings and days off, and now I know beyond a doubt.

Take for instance Lolita, owner and operator of the Petite Beauty Salon on Sierra Madre Blvd. . . Lolita tells us that a redhead has a total of 90,000 hairs in her head . . . and get this . . . a natural, now she said natural blonde had 140,000, while a brunette can only tally us 115,000.

This certainly must have been a "hair raising" experience for Lolita to come up with those fantastic answers. At least if a brunette wishes to get a handful of blonde hair, she would have the best chance of getting a handful than the other two . . . of course the old saying that "men prefer blondes because they get dirtier easier" could be added to, in the fact . . . they have more to get dirty with . . . or something like that.

Anyway, I heard the other day that the definition of "Camelot" is an Arabian parking lot . . . so I have stopped believing anything that I hear nowadays.

I was reading with interest the other day a letter to the editor from Lillian B. Sage, to be found this week or the next, wherein she was talking about the 1966 dollar and the dollar of 1900.

Since 1955 the dollar has been dropping in value from 15% to as high as 24% in some category of spending. If this trend keeps up, can you imagine what it will be worth twenty years from now?

If the rate of acceleration continues, and it undoubtedly will if creation of huge deficits continues. The big domestic question now is whether or not Congress will take steps to protect what is left of your dollar's value, by really applying a heavy blue pencil to non-essential spending. However, I do not have much faith in it.

And instead of government preventing inflation, it seems to cause it . . . About all we've got left seems to be paper and tin money.

This is to remind you we are now right in the middle of the annual Chamber of Commerce Clean-Up campaign. If you have not cleaned up your yard, alleys and garages, this would be a good weekend to get it done, and then we will be all set to really enjoy a leisurely summer . . . I keep telling myself every weekend.

I see where Sierra Madre Estates is really getting their slopes back in shape. Do hope this spring and summer we will see a lot of building in that area . . . we need the valuation for the tax rolls . . . besides a bunch of new homes.

Speaking of Sierra Madre Estates, I learned the other day that Planning Commissioner Bud Hartman is now the proud owner of a home in the area, and will move in soon we hope.

You probably never thought of it in this light, but each hair on your head is a chain of molecules held together by living protein. If you are a redhead, you'll have about 90,000 hairs on your head; 140,000 if a natural blond, and an in-between number if a brunette. For some strange reason your hair grows more rapidly at night than in the daytime, and faster in summer than other seasons. However, contrary to belief in some quarters, hair does not grow faster when cut.

You and Your Neighbor

by Mary-Madeleine Lanphier

If you are minded to get a glimpse of Pasadena's Festival of Arts over the coming weekend, you can see a lot within a small area if you take in the shops on and around Dayton St., which has named this time for its spotlight. Also, you may find a fine bargain at the "Flea Market" to be held in the patio beside the Custom House, where the food is super, home cooked inexpensive. And Sat. eve. free chamber music auditions held at Cal-Tech Dabney Hall, 4 p.m., juniors, 7:30 p.m. seniors—your soul and ears, rest your feet.

(Wonder if Sierra Madre will play "Flea Market for free" with the discards of neighbors during the big annual Clean-up Time? Used to be in New York's Greenwich Village that Sunday night would be the time to browse for lucky finds. If someone bought a new piece of furniture on Saturday, space was so limited, with most householders working so they couldn't wait for Good Will or Salvation Army. So out on the sidewalk the discards would go—often in good condition, and often with a friendly note to the passer-by to "help yourself.")

Of course, if you have a few pennies left over from tax time, there are a score of enjoyable treats to spend them on during this festival. Just remember to save some of your art purchase allotment for our own annual Sierra Madre Art Fair coming up in May.

Though Stephen Jeffrey Wheeler made his appearance in this world way back in February, on the 16th, at Sierra Madre Community Hospital, through some oversight he was omitted from crib crop news. So, a late welcome to little Stephen, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Wheeler, 224 N. Encinitas, Monrovia, whose initial weight of 6 lb. 14 oz.

has now increased considerably. His arrival totals the Wheeler children to four boys in a row. Others are Michael, 10; Jerry, 6; and Gregory, 1, who also chose the same birthplace. These boys are lucky; both sets of grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wheeler and Mr. and Mrs. William H. Wimmer live in Pasadena, so they are easily available for plenty of spoiling.

Ken and Edith Kinucan, our naturalist husband and wife team of 729 W. Alegria, keep busy, more so than ever, with spring nipping at the heels. They took off for a brief spring trip that must have been really beautiful. They went to Indio, visited the Washington Palm Oasis, took the Palm Springs tram to the top of Mt. San Jacinto, went to the back country around San Diego, and crossed the Mexican border to the village of Tecate. On the way home, they stopped to visit Ken's 94 year old grandmother who lives in Alpine; when asked what she'd like to have, her request was for a Nat King Cole recording! Like Spring, who can resist it? Returned home, the Kinucans returned to their civic nobles' oblige and shared their nature knowledge and crusader zeal for preserving the beauty of our area; Edith made a talk last week to the Sierra Madre Women's Club on chaparral, and Ken upped the status of his son Robert by giving a talk on birds to his second grade class at Sierra Madre, taught by Vivian Polidor.

Wonder how many people met and spoke to others not known before as the result of the recent election furor? Chances are if any one is not speaking to someone, it won't be a matter of indifference! My platform is "Sierra Madre is a great place to live" and my slogan, "Keep this the Friendly Town."

HEYWOOD-WAKEFIELD

Settle back. Relax. Put your feet up. Ahh! The high, 40" back and tufted polyfoam bucket-type seat actually cradle you in luxury. Both the frame (formed of steam-bent solid ash wood, not flimsy thin plywood) and upholstery of beautiful black Naugahyde are calculated to be hard-wearing as well as handsome. Base is gleaming aluminum. In teak or walnut finish.

"Viet Nam Profile" is a color sound film which took World Vision, Inc., nearly two years to film by Dr. Bob Pierce and his associates, taking them into all kinds of situations in all corners of war-torn Viet Nam. Many of the crew were in actual combat situations, so that they might portray the drama of God at work in the real context of needy Viet Nam today. It is a profile of pain, courage and for many faith.

All are invited by Mrs. Ruth Gates Miller, Federation president, to bring a sack lunch for the social hour at 12 noon. Hostesses for the hour will be Mmes. Alice O'Whitney, Marie Whitford and Meritta Sprick of Pasadena, also Mrs. Mary Hope Bradshaw of Alhambra.

The afternoon session opens at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Cora A. Snyder, Christian Outreach Director, will bring the devotional message. Miss Carol Motts of South Pasadena will sing "You'll Never Walk Alone," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Marianne Berg of Alhambra. Guest speakers of the afternoon will be Rev. and Mrs. Judd of Australia. Mrs. Judd will speak on "The Advance in the Hour of Social Freedom" and tell of their outstanding work accomplished in Australia. Mrs. Judd is the national WCTU treasurer of Australia, and last president of New South Wales WCTU.

Mrs. Hallie N. Nicholson, legislation director, will report on the recent hearings in this Department of Work in Pasadena. Mrs. Mary Kenny Smith, projection methods director, will display posters recently made in the Narcotic Education department for entry in the annual contest. Mrs. Ruth Brece, social service director, and Mrs. Esther Greenfield, home protection director, will explain the various kits to be filled for the Viet Nam Project, also for child welfare. Instructions for the filling of the kits will be released at this time.

The entire program of the day is open to the general public.

'Probation After Death' Text

The necessity for continuing spiritual growth to realize eternal life is a central theme of this Sunday's service at all Christian Science churches. The subject of the Bible lesson is "Probation After Death." The Golden Text is from James: "Let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing."

Readings to be presented along with the Bible include these lines from the Christian Science textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy. "Individuals are consistent who, watching and playing, can 'run, and not be weary;... walk, and not faint,' who gain good rapidly and hold their position, or attain slowly and yield not to discouragement. God requires perfection, but not until the battle between Spirit and flesh is fought and the victory won."

Dr. Barnhart Announces Sunday Topics

"Life Is Consciousness" is the sermon topic of Dr. Ethel Barnhart at the Santa Anita Church, 226 W. Colorado Blvd., Arcadia, Sunday morning, April 24 at the 11 a.m. worship service. She points out, "Inasmuch as God can do for us only what we can do through us, our levels of consciousness are the only limitation to God's Infinite Love, Wisdom and Power taking form in our lives. The public is invited to worship with us. We are a non-denominational church desiring to serve all people. Infant and child care is provided."

Dr. Barnhart continues: "The most important factor in the life of every child is the spiritual growth. Graded classes for youth from kindergarten through high school are provided at 11 o'clock. Youth of these ages come into the sanctuary at the beginning of the worship service and worship with their parents for 15 minutes. They then go to their respective classes."

Thursday morning at 11 o'clock Dr. Barnhart conducts a workshop for all women. The understanding of spiritual laws and how to apply them to every day living is the basis of the discussion. Special prayer requests are received.

Please call the church, 446-8206, for further information concerning weekday activities.

Dr. Barnhart inquires: "May God bless you through our telephone ministry? Call 447-6162 day or night."

Over 240 Visited Local Studio As Part of Pasadena Festival of Arts

The studio tours listed as one of the offerings of the Pasadena Festival of Arts included the Mae Reich Studio at 28 N. Windsor St., Sierar Madre. A throng of visitors over last weekend, totaling over 240 both surprised and delighted the group of artists showing there, and exhausted the refreshments prepared.

On Saturday, when some 60 people turned up, guests were offered champagne as well as coffee, cake and cookies. But by Sunday when the studio was really crowded during the exhibit hours of 1 to 5 p.m., hospitality was of necessity reduced to just coffee and cookies.

Demonstrations of art techniques were given by four artist members of the studio: Shirley Floyd, oils; Elsie Harnish, sculpture; Ramon Lopez, oil, and Phyllis Markwith, watercolors; Sidney Reich, clay sculpture; Bill Schustrin, oils. So enthusiastic was the audience that four of Miss Markwith's demonstrations were purchased as soon as she had completed them, three collages and two oil paintings done by Mae Reich were sold from the walls, and a couple of the onlookers decided to sign up as students.

Chairman of the open house was Patricia Knold, as representative of the Pasadena Artist Associates. Hostesses were Agnes Abbott, Arellth Liberman, Barbara Liederbrand, and Grete Carlos.

you'll see what an exciting year it has been. Later head down to the cafeterias where everyone can enjoy refreshments at an old-fashioned ice cream social. PTA Board members will be on hand to serve you.

Local Masonic Lodge members will be the official hosts for the Open House Night as their part in the observance of Public School Week. They will be stationed about to help direct you or answer questions.

He has studied violin for the past eight and one-half years and at present is studying with Mrs. Elizabeth Mills of Altadena and also studying chamber music with Cesare Pascarella of the Institute of Arts in Pasadena. He is presently Concert Master of the Pasadena High School orchestra.

During the past summer, he studied in a music camp for strings only, in New York state with Ivan Galamian. Mr. Lewis has been presented by Mrs. Claire Horner of the Artists Series, the Young Musician's Center in Los Angeles and is immediate past president of the Tuesday Musicales Juniors of Pasadena. He presently plays, in addition to the high school orchestra, with the West Side Symphony and the Tuesday Musicales Juniors. He is accompanied on the piano by Miss Carol Hendrixson of Arcadia, a fine musician in her own right.

The winning selection was Bruch's Concerto No. 1 in G Minor, Opus 26. He is the son of Mrs. Patricia Lewis and lives with his mother and maternal grandmother at 61 Sunny-slope Ave., Pasadena. His plans are to attend the University of California at Los Angeles and to go on in the music field-teaching and concert work.

Proud backers during the competition were his mother, Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Richard Jones, president of the Civic Club, Miss Jennifer Jones and Mrs. John T. Matter.

Judges were: Dr. Clifford Barnes, Stanley Kurtz and Jack Perry.

As Ives Sees It

WITH ALL THAT, welcome home, Jerry.
TO AVOID AN "EGG ON THE FACE" situation, Old Hankus must caution that this column was written on Sunday and that a strictly hush-hush request was made regarding an announcement. That's just in case things don't work out.

Villa Views

every School Bridge Tournament has reached its half way point and you can jolly well bet that there will be a lot of hard, fast playing before its termination on May 10.

The announced winners at the half time, according to the singles chairman, Mary Lou Reed, are Nickey Ford and Mary Wilkenson, in the afternoon group, and Anna Betty Goldman and Carol Bleeker in the night group. Donna Crawley, the couples chairman, announced that Mac and Mae MacKenzie are leading in group I, Don and Krys Yokotis, in group II, and Bert and Carolyn Kellin are leading group III. Care to make any wagers on the finalists??

April Marriage Announced

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Barclay of 1250 Daverice Drive are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Donna Kay to Stephen Charles Mettler on Saturday, April 2, at 2 p.m. at the Oneonta Congregational Church in South Pasadena. Dr. Edwin Roberts officiated.

The bride wore a full-length gown of antique satin. The simple A line of the front was accented with elbow length sleeves edged in guipure lace. The back interest was three tiers of antique satin edged with guipure lace, with two bows accenting the back of the square neckline.

Her veil was an elbow length bouffant veil of silk bridal illusion and was held by a headpiece fashioned of silk organza petals trimmed with medallions of re-embroidered alencon lace, seed pearls and drop crystal.

The bride's sister, Gloria J. Barclay was her maid of honor and the four bridesmaids' empire gowns were of pale pink crepe and white lace with matching headpieces of bouffant veil over three bows on streamers.

A reception followed at the La Canada Country Club with 300 guests attending.

Mr. and Mrs. Mettler will reside in Pasadena after a honeymoon in Hawaii.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
Make Sierra Madre
A Cleaner Place To Live
For You . . . And Your Neighbor

Due to the extremely high cost of pick-up of excess debris, each citizen is asked to accumulate his "throw-away" materials and fill his weekly barrels to capacity until all materials have been hauled away.

If you have large articles such as water heaters, divans, chairs, sinks, logs, tree branches or yard debris, it is suggested that you accumulate these articles in one location and call your rubbish collector at their number and for a nominal cost they will schedule a pick-up and haul away all excess materials.

You and Your Neighbor

by Mary-Madeleine Lamphier

You hop a jet and get there in no time; then you drive for miles through the jungle to the ruins, wondering skeptically what kind of hotel accommodations could possibly exist, and then — you find one of the finest hotels ever encountered, the best of service, the food superb, and the fruits truly fabulous, even by California standards. That's the report from Mr. and Mrs. J. Irl Beatty, 451 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., who have just recently returned from a three week trip to Mexico, Yucatan, Guatemala and Honduras where they pursued some day visiting the Inca ruins in Peru, one of my enduring dreams. They stopped in Guadalajara for a couple of days on the way back and loved it; will probably take off for another short trip in May, driving this time, destination undecided at this date. That's living!

During Easter vacation Perry Arnold gave his family a real treat; he took his mother, Mrs. Gladys Arnold, his sister, Mrs. Robert Hatfield of 617 Manzanita, and her three children, Susan, Bobby and Virginia, up to Mammoth for skiing. Since it had been a dozen years since Jean-Marie Hatfield had donned skis, she was dubious at first, then surprised and pleased to find that muscles remember what they've learned and she navigated the slopes just fine, alone, that is. She let Perry take over on taking small Virginia down the bunny hill. At the rate people in this state ski and get their young on the slopes almost as soon as they can walk, we ought to be harvesting world championships soon.

Among our city travellers over spring vacation were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Yoder, 1745 Wilson, and their daughter Susan, who goes to Foothill Junior High. The family went off to Alliance, Ohio, to visit Mr. Yoder's mother, Mrs. John Wiltse, and his sister, Mrs. R. P. Williamson. Susan took a side trip to Greenfield, Mass., to visit the Otis Browns and their daughter Gail, who was Susan's best friend when the Browns lived in Arcadia.

Neighbors of the Ross Tyrees, Doug and Janet Stapel, 605 N. Hermosa, top them on raccoon tales. Seems that Maggie, the poodle, belonging to their twin daughters Marianna and Naomi, woke the whole family one night with a fearful racket out by the pool. Everyone rushed out to investigate and found that Maggie, seeking to defend family territory, was being held at bay poolside by a very determined raccoon mother while her three babies splashed around for a midnight bath! So, if you live close to the mountains and you see big, big eyes peering in your window, wait before calling police — it may only be a curious, furry friend.

Here are further notes on the animal kingdom. There'll be a turtle race, as well as a ham dinner on Sunday, April 24, second day of the Wildflower Festival in the Antelope Valley held by Hi Vista. E Centro at 10 a.m. on Saturday, April 23 will hold its annual Children's Pet Parade. Same weekend the Southern California Jumping Frog Championships will be held at Del Mar, with several hundred frogs slated to compete. Spring has sprung.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Weese report a heresy — that it was beautifully sunny in No. Hollywood all day Easter, while it was misty here. They made their observations when they attended a big family reunion held at the home of Mrs. Weese's niece, Mrs. Carl Salanito, Jr.

Alpha Omicron Pi To Install New Officers

On April 21, Pasadena Alumnae of Alpha Omicron Pi will meet for dessert at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Ralph Deardon, 1925 Paloma St., Pasadena. Mrs. Vernon Rose will preside. The program for the evening will be provided by two Pasadena kindergarten teachers, Mrs. James Lites and Miss Carol Matheson. They will tell of their experiences living in Japan with a Japanese family and will show slides. Mrs. Lites and Miss Matheson will present the program dressed in native Japanese costume.

Hostesses for the meeting are Mrs. J. T. Forgate of San Marino and Mrs. F. G. Wheeler of South Pasadena. On April 19, at 10 a.m., the Southern California Council of Alpha Omicron Pi will install new officers at the home of Mrs. William H. Brown, 4321 Chula Senda, Pasadena. Officers to be installed are: president, Mrs. Marshall J. Vatcher of Downey; vice president, Mrs. Jackson T. Bryan of Long Beach; secretary, Mrs. John T. Butler of Newport Beach; and treasurer, Mrs. Terrence R. White of Los Angeles. The installing officer will be Mrs. D. S. Eastbrook, national secretary of Alpha Omicron Pi. She will be assisted by Mrs. Carl B. Johnston, district alumnae director of Alpha Omicron Pi.

Fifteen organized alumnae groups are represented on the Southern California Council of Alpha Omicron Pi, which coordinates their activities in national and local projects including support of the three collegiate chapters in the area. Attending the event from the Pasadena Alumnae will be Mrs. Vernon Rose, Pasadena Chapter president, and Miss Helen Haller, past national president.

Any members in the area interested in attending either meeting, please contact Mrs. Rose.

Do you remember the days when a woman of refinement wouldn't be caught dead on the street without her gloves and hat?

Now the loneliest department in the whole store is the hat department. The hats are all displayed enticingly, ribbioned and beflowered, or lace, straw, fur, felt, frothy with tulle and lace, and in the midst you'll see a rather sad-eyed sales girl wondering if it is all worth it and if she'll ever make her quota for the month. Customers drift in and out fingering this hat and that, holding them to their face to see if the color is becoming, but never, never trying them on. She dast not lest she spoil her bubble coiffure.

If she buys at all, in the event of a wedding or a church service, she'll settle for a mantilla, but never a HAT. . . Oh, she might buy an enchanting beach hat to cover her un-bubbled hair after a swim or to keep the sun from her eyes, or because it is an attractive conversation piece, but seldom will she purchase to complete her ensemble. That is my lady, and what teenager would be caught with a box on her head . . . It might perchance shade her bare feet.

I'll be glad when the tide has turned and the picture hats of yesteryear once more are the fashion of the day. Of course by that time that little old grey bun on the back of my head will definitely call for a flat top with a rose growing from its brim. Oh well, it will look nice with my "tennies."

I've been trying to catch up on some of the activities of the people in the neighborhood that were gone last week when I tried to get them.

The Floyd Strollers of Barhite had a nice outing with their children, Cathy, Claudia, and Guy. They went down to the Half Moon Inn for a few days and had the opportunity of doing a little harbor yatching with one of their friends there. Their eldest daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Peck, joined them for the last two days.

The Strollers have had a whirl of activity around their house between remodeling and trying to get their swimming pool in before summer is upon us. In addition, Betty has been busy as a cranberry merchant in her Girl Scout-ing work. She is Community Chairman this year and was responsible for the big Girl Scout camp-out in the Rose Bowl last month. There were six hundred and sixty five girls and adults in a two night and three day camp out on the field. It was a magnificent experience, including the 35 flag ceremony.

George and Joyce Wenger chose La Jolla for their family outing over the holidays.

The Skipper Rostkers, also of Barhite took their group up North to San Francisco for a few days.

The Bob Snetingers were in Las Vegas for a couple of days watching everyone else lose their money. Bob said he found out early in the game that the odds were with the house and he did not want to be a donor.

As I write this the "Trip Group" will be partially enroute to Europe. Leaving today were Gordon and Fran Wright, Tony and Lois Boland, Bill and Pat Olson, and Bob and Carmen Farm-to Salt Lake City for a few days of orientation before returning home for his final visit.

Last Monday evening the family again gathered for their last farewell for two years.

At this dinner party were Dr. and Mrs. Richard G. Jensen and their son Karl, from Berkeley, California, Mr. and Mrs. Reid Wood, of Ojai, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith of Culver City, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Wrigley, and the two youngest Jensen men, Jim and John.

Local Art Talent Demonstrated

The month of May is ushering in a new bit of local talent in the form of Ruby Andresen, who will be demonstrating her art abilities in the field of oil painting. These oil paintings will be on display from May 3 through May 31 at the Hospitality House in Descanso Garden, 1418 La Canada Drive, La Canada. The exhibition will be open every day between the hours of 10 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. and should prove to be a most interesting one woman presentation and well worth attending.

Remembering the C of C dinner and the emphasis on a "village" image for Sierra Madre, patrons of the Conglomerate Shop will be relieved to know that it will retain its same image despite the move around May first to the boulevard—same price range, same pot-pourri of surprises.

Sierra Madrean Attends School In Mexico City

Taking advantage of the benefits of studying abroad plus the opportunity to master a foreign language, Joseph Frontino, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph V. Frontino, 144 N. Baldwin, is attending the University of the Americas in Mexico City, the former seat of the Aztec empire.

The University of the Americas campus has a truly international atmosphere with students from 42 foreign countries and a distinguished faculty of American, Latin American, and European educators. Accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, UA has the largest enrollment of American students attending school outside the borders of the United States.

Frontino graduated from La Salle High School in Pasadena before he enrolled at Pasadena City College. Now at UA Frontino is majoring in international relations.

Frontino finds learning at UA doubly rewarding because his academic training is combined with travel. Excursions sponsored by the University acquaint students with the Temple of Quetzalcoatl at Teotihuacan; ancient Zapotec ruins at Monte Alban in Oaxaca; and the ceramic and copper work of the Tarascan Indians of Patzcuaro. More adventuresome students try out their mountain-climbing urges on the snow-peaked Popocatepetl.

Mexico City, now the second largest metropolis in the hemisphere, is renowned as a modern and cosmopolitan.

tan cultural city, rich in archeological and historical sites. The recently inaugurated National Museum of Anthropology, considered a representative example of modern Mexican architecture, houses the archeological treasures of the nation, from the pottery remains and artifacts of the Olmecs, to the intricate gold jewelry of the Mayas. The entrance to the museum is guarded by the rain god of ancient Mexico, Tlaloc, a massive structure weighing over 346,000 pounds.

The excitement of international living and learning that Frontino is experiencing in Mexico was praised by President Lyndon B. Johnson in a recent telegram to UA on the school's 25th anniversary. The President hailed UA as a powerful link in "truly international cooperation" and a great influence in toppling barriers between nations.

Interesting side note re this fraternity: they do not permit members to sport beards or long hair! Jim, who graduated from La Salle and is majoring in cartography and geology is now back at school after his visit with parents, like the rest of them.

readjust the sponsors fee, somehow. Meanwhile, however, it actually costs about $20 per boy for each player, even though he buys his own shoes. Because equipment is different and uniforms larger for those in the age groups of the Pony and Colt teams, the cost jumps to an average of $38 per boy in these groups.

Uniforms used to carry a sponsor's name, but this proved too expensive, with changes in sponsors each year, and changes, too, in team players and their sizes. But sponsors reap newspaper publicity and good will, and a banner bearing sponsor name extends over the dugout whenever his team plays. In addition, besides knowing he is contributing to the community and its youth, he is assured that his money is spent with local merchants.

A boy buys his own shoes, is loaned a uniform and cap for the season, a safety helmet as the game may require it, and at the end of the year gets to keep his cap. Obviously, with some 300 boys playing, even with some sponsors, there has to be a deficit somewhere. The deficit is the job of the Women's Auxiliary; it is the mothers who do the fund-raising activities — besides listening to complaints, soothing home arguments, and making up a large part of the cheering audience (Some last year took pains to sit for three innings on the side of one team, three on the other, so each would have plenty of boosters.)

The Little League program of Sierra Madre was officially started and charter approved in 1958, with Bill Coulson as the first president. The women began to raise funds and help in 1960, became the Auxiliary in 1962, with Myrt Waite its first president. This year Betty Stuart is its president; her husband, Don, has been such an ardent team manager in the past that she's thoroughly indoctrinated.

Last year's "Base Ball," held in June at the La Salle cafeteria for $8 per couple, drew a noteworthy crowd of 300. As many are hoped for this year, when the dinner dance will be held May 28 at the new Jewish Temple on South Second Street in Arcadia. Reports are that people truly "have a ball" at this affair.

Those who buy Booster tickets participate in prizes, secured by the Auxiliary, and of course there are door prizes and such for the dinner dance. Last year Bert Embree, current president, took color photos of the teams, Team mothers sold these as souvenirs, which may prove to be another good money-raising idea.

Team managers are obtained by asking fathers of boy players to take on this job. These managers comprise the Board of Directors of Little League, with one vote each. Officers of the Women's Auxiliary as well as Pony-Colt are also members of the Baseball Association. At the end of the season a nominating committee proposes officers for the coming year, which comprise president, first and second vice presidents, secretary, treasurer and player agent. The honorary title of "Father of the Year" does not include specific duties — the title usually has been earned by plenty of hard work. The Association meets in October to qualify for renewal of its charter from the National Little League Association, which has now actually become international, and by the first of the next year receives its charter materials, a manual, guide and handbook, training and promotion materials, etc. They meet once a month year around.

There's no fiddle-faddle about the umpires for Little League games here. Umpires are professionals, paid for their services, from a special umpire service. Good thing, too, for the heated feelings which spring from enthusiasm for the game, while part of the American baseball tradition, might just disrupt parent harmony if the umpires were amateur and local.

Perhaps the growing number of fathers eager to participate in the devoted chores and time consuming work of Little League Baseball is significant in both the fact that today it takes a bit of effort to be a proper father, and, on the other hand, the adults in general are beginning to take time to live a little as they go along. Father, mother or boy—if they are part of Little League Baseball — they'll live a lot, not a little — at least as it is here in Sierra Madre.

CREDO OF THE LITTLE LEAGUE VOLUNTEER

I will... Hold Little League to be a proud asset to our nation and through my example will help to endow it with the highest possible standards.

Respect the boy as an individual and keep in mind his capabilities, limitations and the problems of growing up.

Be active in the growing movement of Little League, ready to improve the estate of youngsters whenever possible, hoping to find honest enjoyment in the creative service the program affords.

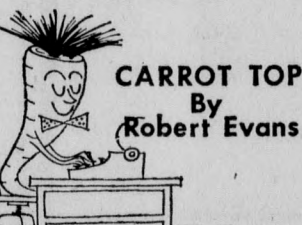

Recognize the responsibilities of training boys in lessons of fair play, discipline and teamwork.

Keep myself informed through basic understanding of the objectives of the program.

Cooperate in careful observance of the rules and regulations which are the strength of Little League.

Encourage support of parents, educators and all agencies devoted to the welfare of youth.

Protect the Little League name and emblem against exploitation and Little League players against commercialization.

Here is some advice that just came in from our High Finance department: By the time you get the installments paid, the luxury you bought is a necessity... financing these days is planned and geared, I truly believe, to be fully paid up just the week before the article breaks down, and the repair man tells you that it isn't worth fixing, the cost would be better put into a new one... but that's the way life is these days.

—CT—

In closing this week I have this to say... "It's a strange world: The U.S. Supreme Court has ruled that it is unlawful to require Communists to register as such as heretofore required... Freedom is a great thing... that is what these Communists have vowed to destroy. Yet, we give them every aid and encouragement that is possible." I do hope, I hope, I hope, that each of you soon wakes up to these facts.

"Capparelli" is the name Elaine has given this enchanting hair fashion which she designed, showing the Italian influence. Starting with a permanent wave which gives body and manageability to the hair, Elaine creates a daytime fashion that's flattering and different, with soft Antoine sides over the ears. For more formal occasions, the hair is pushed back from the face and arranged to give a dramatic Renaissance look. No additional hair pieces are used, yet a very elaborate effect is achieved.

You and Your Neighbor

by Mary-Madeleine Lamphie

A former Sierra Madre resident, Mrs. Daniel (LaRue) Martz is returning from her present home in Hammond, Indiana for an extended visit with her many relatives and friends here. LaRue, formerly Mrs. Iry, is the daughter of Mrs. Nadine Harris of 76 E. Sierra Madre Blvd. and the granddaughter of Mrs. Geneva Donawho of 28 N. Baldwin; she went to school at Sierra Madre and Pasadena High. Also living here are her brother, Charles Gibson and her sister, Mrs. Christine Schmidt; an uncle, J. E. Hutchinson, lives in Newport Beach with his wife Mary Lou and their children Charlene, Jeannie and Jimmy. The Hutchinsons' daughter Sandra is married to Danny Goodland of Sierra Madre. So, all in all, there'll be quite some reunions going on in this family!

have three pairs of sturdy legs and willing hands to help, with three children: Linda, Marjorie and Vincent. Particularly, of course, Linda, is especially helpful, as befits a young lady of college age. Linda attended San Diego State the first semester, will remain at home a few months before transferring to UCLA in the fall, where she will continue studies toward a career of service in social work.

The Sierra Madre Women's Club just keeps going busily along, as it has ever since the first meeting of some thirty women who gathered enthusiastically despite a pouring February rain way back in 1907. No sooner have they had their "Luncheon Is Served" gathering April 20, with its added food and white elephant sale, under the able chairmanship of Mrs. Molly McKim, than members are busy preparing for the Tea Meeting to be held at 2 p.m. April 27 at the clubhouse. Tea hostesses will be Mrs. Vera W. Purington and her sister Mrs. George Kirby. Entertainment will be Spanish dancing by the team of Rosana and Daniel, with history of the folk dances given by Rosana.

Probably the Women's Club has been the strongest influence in setting patterns for the active and varied cultural opportunities existing in Sierra Madre, for early issues of the News reveal a range quite surprising for a place as small as this city originally was. There are many anecdotes about the club's early days. One time they held a Colonial Tea with guests in Colonial fashion dancing the minuet. At the club's first Christmas party for children of members, Santa came riding down a hill on a burro, which he rode right up the steps of the Town Hall and into the auditorium itself! Somehow the flavor of the old West and the citrus fruit tree and vineyard covered foothills combined into a special spirit here in Sierra Madre which has continued to linger and color the town's activities and not been erased by all the shiny modern improvements. We're very fortunate that the climate's so healthy that early residents have lived long and preserved the close community spirit natural to a pioneering town, even if it was "cultural" from the start.

SPORTS AS Hank Ives SEES IT

VOICE OF THE FAN . . .
FRANK BURKE, impresario of the Highlander House of Spirits, tabs the Cincinnati Reds and Minnesota Twins to win their respective pennant races. He admits to having help from his staff of baseball experts, namely Pie Schmickley, Styles Fong and Sammy Cadabba. Together they name San Francisco, Pittsburgh, Atlanta and the Phillies to round out the N.L. first division. The Dodgers are destined for sixth, followed by St. Louis, Chicago, Houston and New York.

Detroit looks like a second place pick in the A.L. trailed by Chicago, Baltimore, New York, Cleveland, California, Kansas City, Boston and Washington. All things considered, they don't differ much from Old Hank's.

COACHES HAVE been named for the Little League teams. Among the major leagues Doug Tucker has the Braves, Jack Overholt the Cubs, Harold Dapper, Dodgers; Lee Karin, Red Sox; Earl La Lone, Yankees and Bob Talbott the Indians.

On the minor league front Bob Garrison has the Angels, Wayne Hartwell the Astros, Jim Oldham is in charge of the Colts, Gary Ewald the Mounties, William Udel, Orioles; Don Bohler, Padres; James Cass, Seals, and Trevor Toomey, the Stars.

THE PONY LEAGUE SLATE get underway Saturday with the Twins tangling with the Tigers at 9 a.m. and the Reds facing the Pirates at 1 p.m.

ALICE BOHLER who heads the shoe exchange and lost and found departments for the Sierra Madre Baseball Association, would like the boys to turn in their "too-small" shoes as soon as possible. She is at the diamond diner every Saturday.

BOOSTER TICKET SALES end next Saturday. Ask most any boy in your neighborhood and help support the Association.

WHICH SEASON IS TOO LONG? Obviously the baseball training and exhibition season starts far too early. By the same token the professional basketball race not only starts in the middle of the season but concludes about the time the children get out of school for the summer.

THIS-N-THAT . . . With Chamberlain was considerably miffed when a Philadelphia sports writer told him to task for poor work in the playoffs with Boston. Can't really blame the 76ers where would they have been finished without him?

IF AL GORE ACCORDING to have the early part of this week, the Pasadena City College Lancers will have a new basket ball coach. Jerry Tarkanian, the highly successful Riverside casaba member, is scheduled to take coaching reins from Huddy Scott.

Just why Jerry would wish to "come home" to Pasadena and take over a cage situation that best can be described as lousy, is a question that only time will answer. Jerry was a fine guard on the 1951-52 Lancer PHS. His buddies from that era have stuck together like glue. Seldom do you see Jerry's team play without Ernie Johansen, Frank Kostaln, and Callis, Don Murray and that bunch being in attendance.

Tarkanian has just completed a quinquella that found his Tiger teams winning three straight California Junior College titles and the consolation bracket in a fourth. He will have his work cut out for him at Pasadena. Recruiting, strictly Jerry's strong suit, is practically non-existent on the Lancer campus. The playing field is miserable and I can't imagine that the pay checks will come very close to equaling his Riverside salary.

HEALTH and YOUR PROTECTION

Have you considered that today's prescriptions can often save you money? For instance, Tonsillitis once meant weeks of treatment by the family doctor, but today, Tonsillitis can usually be cured within forty-eight hours with antibiotics. So, most people realize that today's prescriptions are far more effective than those of ten or fifteen years ago, yet they do not consider that today's medications can save weeks of hospitalization or months of recuperation! Also, most people don't realize that the average prescription only costs three dollars and thirty-one cents, so when you look at the real cost of today's prescriptions this way, it seems obvious that today's modern medicines are your biggest bargain.

When you need prompt, professional prescription service, we at Hartman Pharmacy are at your service. As dedicated members of the Health Team in Sierra Madre we are interested in your good health and the health of your family. Our pharmacists work quickly, professionally and responsibly to be sure that you receive the most modern and freshly stocked drugs exactly as your physician prescribes. Do drop by and see us.

B of A Announces Good Year

A substantial increase in deposits during the previous 12 months highlighted Bank of America's March 31 figures, president Rudolph A. Peterson reported today.

Deposits rose to $14,997,223,000, a gain of $1,075,313,000 over the total of $13,921,910,000 on March 31, 1965. Total resources were up to $16,683,834,000, against the comparable 1965 figure of $15,400,545,000.

Net operating earnings increased to $24,481,000, up 12.5 per cent from $21,753,000 in the first quarter of 1965. Per share earnings amounted to 86 cents as compared with 76 cents.

Continuing strong demand for credit was reflected in the increase in loans to $10,152,281,000, a rise of $763,407,000 over last year's total of $9,388,874,000. Investment in securities amounted to $3,156,968,000 as compared to $3,128,357,000. Total capital funds, together with reserve for possible loan losses of $171,864,000, now amount to $1,070,847,000, representing a gain of $42,813,000 over last year.

Mrs. C. R. Shepherd, formerly very active with the Women's Club but now living in Walnut Creek, came down to visit the family of her daughter, Mrs. Tal ("Midge") Morash, 405 Manzanita, and remained to look after Anne and Paul while Kim joined her parents in the expedition to work in Tajana during the spring vacation.

Mrs. Morash and the Girl Scouts are again busy on the new trails in Bailey Canyon, and she reminds us that there is a whole list of projects of various sizes waiting to be snapped up by volunteers from other youth groups.

Who would ever think that a person could portray many different personalities and yet be himself at the same time. I know of one such young man who has been Christ, David and Joseph, or could be Hitler if he wanted to. He is Charles Baumann.

In a short twenty-three years of life, Charles has been in numerous plays and musicals at such places as The Pasadena Playhouse, The College of Theatre Arts, The Western Groves Theatre Guild, Missouri, and The Pasadena Shakespeare Club.

He also has appeared in "Anything Goes," "Born Yesterday," "Tonight at 8:30," and "Bury the Dead," not to mention dozens of others.

Charles also has wanted to be an actor but his only problem is to break into the field like Spencer Tracey or Charleton Heston have. He doesn't really care about being as famous as they are, he just wants to be as good as they are.

Besides being an actor, Charles also is a singer, dancer, musician and writer. As a matter of fact, he wrote instrumental music for "Member of the Wedding," starring Ethel Waters.

"Death of a Salesman" and "When I Want You" are two of the shows that Charles has appeared in on the telly. He also was a TV news writer and commentator.

Charlie loves to travel and to listen to music. He is 6-ft. 2-in., has brown eyes and hair and loves steak and pizza. His favorite sports include fencing, swimming and horseback riding.

Roses Garden
Now in Full Bloom

The inherent beauty of its location—enhanced by care for more than fifty years—gives Rose Hills Memorial Park unparalleled acceptance among Southern California families. At this one place all facilities are provided: cemetery, mortuary, chapels, flower shops. Nearly 100,000 families have found peace of mind by purchasing—in advance of need—their Family Memorial at Rose Hills, where so much more costs no more.

Editorially Speaking...

We're Off!

The die has been cast. The votes have been tallied, counted and the results noted and now come history: a phase in the life of Sierra Madre that will always be referred to. The results were not exactly as we would have had them but we believe sufficient to hold our city on a very even and progressive course.

It is with deep regret that we lost, for the time being, the building of a new Civic Center. The election has caused a deep gash in the personnel of the Parks and Recreation Commission, one that no doubt will take almost a year to heal and bring the Commission back as a well-working commission. This was indeed regrettable, but all of us have our full right of opinion, right or wrong, the chips must lay where they fall... time heals all wounds, and we progress in spite of them.

The new council, with a new Mayor, will take over actively on Tuesday, April 26. Many grave problems face the Council for the coming year. The first we see on the horizon is the presentation of the Final Tract Map for the Huntington Construction Company's Tract 29402, for the first half, lots 1 to 39; we can see bitter opposition here and maybe a court decision again. The second important item to reach the Council will be the Budget and Tax levy for the coming '66-67 year. With employees asking for a 3 to 5 per cent overall increase in salaries, increased cost of maintenance and operational costs, and with the valuations up about three-quarters of a million, it will be extremely hard for the Council to maintain its present tax levy, with much of a reduction almost impossible, and we fairly well know and anticipate that any such reduction that may be garnered will be swallowed completely by the County, Schools and Water Districts.

But our new Councilman Edmond Wagner at a meeting of Candidates on March 23 at the Sierra Mesa School made the remarks that in 1964 we should have been able to operate our city on a 23 cent per $100 valuation less than was assessed, and that he could prove that we were over-assessed in round figures of approximately $100,000. So, happy days are here again. If he could do it in 1964 we are sure that his promise will come through for 1966-67. Councilwoman Maddox concurred in this speech so we know that they will be giving us a good savings on our personal property tax come December this year.

The next big problem that will hit the Council, much before the year is over will be the proposition of supplemental water. It is already known that to join MWD, the cost to the taxpayers of Sierra Madre will run in the vicinity of 4 1/2 million to be paid off in the next 30-years. To stay with our district and avail ourselves of State water will run close to the same amount. It will be the decision of the Council, whether this will come out of water revenues, with an increased rate to take care of it, or that it will be assessed against the taxpayers' personal property, and the taxpayers and voters will be asked what type of medicine they wish to take.

The fourth great decision, as we see it, will concern what is anticipated for the Police Department. This is the most serious of all of the crowded conditions. The fire department can struggle along with what they have. The city offices can continue to operate under the conditions that they are now operating, but the Police Department is in serious trouble, and something will surely have to be done very soon.

These are only four of the major problems that will hit the Council shortly. Thousands will be of a minor nature, but will have a decided effect on the progress of the community. We foresee many months of hard fought struggle, many disappointments, very little rejoicing.

We have recorded the pledges of each member of the elected Council. As they progress during the years ahead we will refer to those pledges, and remind those needing reminding that their courses may have been altered. You shall be well informed as to their activity. This is our pledge to you, and you can well believe it.

What the Law Can't Do

This year an effort will be made to further increase the federal minimum wage.

A good many people favor an increase on purely humanitarian grounds. They want to see the lower-income groups in our society helped. This is a tribute to their hearts — but not to their heads. And there are several reasons why that is true.

For one thing, an arbitrary boost in wages that is not accompanied by gains in productivity must produce one certain result — higher prices, more inflation. And the burdens of inflation fall heaviest on people of small means. It obviously does no one any good if we put a little more money in one of the worker's pockets — and then take it or a greater amount out of another pocket in the form of increased living costs.

For another thing, wage increases which are not accompanied by higher worker productivity compel employers to reduce their labor force to the limit. There are businesses which have room for beginners, the unskilled, the marginal and part-time workers. Retailing is an excellent example of this. But retailing is also an intensely competitive business in which profit margins are generally low. Most stores simply can't absorb wage increases without raising prices. And price increases, to compound the trouble, may gravely injure their competitive strength. So, as the wage and hour laws are used to force wages higher and higher, the retailer has no choice save to employ as few of the unskilled and little-skilled as possible. Then these people are denied the opportunity to gain experience which would qualify them for more responsible and better paying jobs.

The law can be used to fix wages at any level. But it can't create the jobs to go with the higher pay.

Did you ever stop to think that the reason we started this darn country in the first place was to escape taxation? The average American now pays out more in taxes than he formerly got in wages. That's progress — ain't it?

Which brings to mind "Foggy Bottom." The State Department had better start thinking with something other than its bottom or it (along with some Americans) will have no bottom left to think with!

"It is being claimed that Cuba is the biggest country in the world—with its capital in Havana, its government in Russia, and most of its people in the United States."—The Machinist.

"We adults spend far too much time preparing the path for our youth and far too little time preparing our youths for the path."—G. Raymond Campbell.

A motorist, picked up unconscious after an accident, opened his eyes as he was being carried into a neighborhood gas station. He began to struggle violently and tried to get away. Afterwards, when asked about it, he said that the first thing he saw was a big red Shell sign — "and some fool was standing in front of the letter S."

Mother: "Jimmy I wish you'd learn better table manners. You're a regular little pig at the table." After a deep silence on Jimmy's part, his father, wishing to further impress him, said: "Do you know what a pig is, Jimmy?" "Yes, sir," Jimmy replied, "it's a hog's little boy."

"Some old-fashioned mothers who can remember their husband's first kiss now have daughters who can't remember their first husbands."—F. G. Kernan.

To Bar Removal Of Vegetation

County Supervisors recently instructed County Counsel Harold W. Kennedy to prepare an ordinance for their approval which would bar removal of hillside brush except under certain conditions, announced Supervisor Warren M. Dorn.

The board acted in the wake of heavy winter rains which combined with brush removed slopes as a probable cause for one fatality, three injuries and an estimated $60,000 in property damage.

County Engineer John A. Lambie proposed that Supervisors adopt an ordinance which would regulate removal of brush on property with a sloping terrain having a grade of 8 per cent

Take your problems to CHURCH this week -- millions leave them there!

The Family That Prays Together...

Slogans have their place. But no slogan can really express the value of worship for a Christian family.

That those who pray together generally stay together is simply a statistical fact derived from someone's study of divorce and delinquency records.

What is important to the millions of American families who will attend church next Sunday is the spiritual foundation upon which they have chosen to build life. They are finding a way to meet and overcome the obstacles that so often frustrate the self-sufficient. They are seeking truth that endures.

Religion is not a gimmick that automatically insures happy marriage, well-behaved children or social well-being. But the family that prays together ultimately learns from God Himself the meaning of love, understanding and sacrifice. And these affect our homes... and our world.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a house of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and read your Bible daily.
